Review Plays Host

Newsboys Are Honored

Recognition for outstanding service was accorded 10 Review newspaperboys Thursday night.

They were presented "Certificates of Merit" and "Honor Carrier" bags when the newspaper played host at a dinner meeting in the Travelers Hotel.

Robert W. Conroy, circulation manager who presided during the program, said the 10 honored youngsters were chosen from the 193 who deliver The Review daily in the tri-state area.

The awards were made in conjunction with National Newspaper Week and Newspaperboy Day.

Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard was guest speaker, with this topic "Building Bridges".

Pointing out that many prominent businessmen began their careers as newsboys, he outlined the following benefits to be derived from a paper route:

- 1.—Earning of your own money, laying the foundation for future endeavors in the business world.
- 2.—Learning how to get along with people.
- 3.—First opportunity to develop self-discipline.
- 4.—Practice of thrift.
- 5.—Busy people seldom get in trouble.

The judge advised the newspaperboys to use the above qualities "as blocks for building of bridges with which to span the obstacles of life".

"You have to build your own bridges," he cautioned, explaining, however, that at times "you may receive unexpected help".

Guests at the dinner included C. V. Hughes, Review business manager, and Arthur T. Thomas, editor.

Representing the circulation department were William Garren, Ed Carnes and Leroy Crouse.

Business Unit Revives Talk Of Tax Slash

Council, Officials Of Administration Open Conferences

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP)—Revived talk of federal tax cuts as an economic booster was heard today as the Business Council opened a weekend series of closed meetings with Kennedy administration officials.

The council headed by Roger M. Blough, chairman of United States Steel Corp., received from its own panel of economic consultants a forecast of continued sluggish business activity well into next year.

In Washington, official concern about the lagging economy was mirrored Thursday in an unusual move by the Federal Reserve Board to increase the lending power of the nation's banks.

The easing of credit will be accomplished by reducing the amount of money member banks must keep on hand as reserves backing saving and prime deposits. The reduction was the first of its kind since June 1954.

At Hot Springs, some members of the Business Council told news-men privately they foresee no early recession but believe strong medicine will be needed—most likely a cut in income and corporation tax rates—to shift the economy into high gear.

Administration leaders here took the slightly more optimistic view that steady if unspectacular gains can be expected for nine months or more.

But some—including Chairman Walter W. Heller of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, who addresses the council Saturday—are known to favor tax cuts deep enough to give a strong stimulus to business and consumer demand.

GOP Leaders Hit Ben Bella As 'Turncoat'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican leaders—still drumming at administration foreign policy — have criticized Algerian Premier Ahmed Ben Bella for "turncoat activities," which they called a slap at U.S. prestige.

The statement Thursday by three GOP campaign officials was touched off by Ben Bella's visit to Cuba this week in which he agreed with Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro that the United States must pull out of its naval base at Guantanamo Bay in Cuba.

On Monday Ben Bella was welcomed by President Kennedy in White House ceremonies that included full military honors and a presidential pledge of friendship to the nation which recently won independence from France.

Would 'Breathe In New Life'

DiSalle Urges Expansion Of Industrial Department

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle today proposed a broad expansion program which he said is designed to "breathe new life into the Ohio Department of Industrial and Economic Development."

He said the plan would allow the department to operate as originally intended when it was created in November 1959. DiSalle said the department can and should serve as a coordinator for Ohio's growing economy.

"Instead of reducing the financial support for this department," the Democrat said, "which is the smallest in state government, I recommend reviving it to its former stature, at least, and bolstering it with additional expert personnel which will enable it to expand and improve its services for the people of Ohio."

DiSalle said the department's Industrial Development Division—

Kennedy Hits Political Trail Again Today

Makes Speech In Cleveland; Slated For Swing To West

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy jumps back on the campaign trail today—and smack in the middle of some of the toughest fights this election has produced.

After a midmorning takeoff, Kennedy's schedule called for:

A noon speech in downtown Cleveland, with probable plugs for a strong Democratic House, for Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, who has rough going in his battle for reelection, and for Sen. Frank J. Lausche, a Democrat who has often been lukewarm on Kennedy proposals.

Wife Slayer Shoots Self, Dies Later

Czech Diplomat At U.N. Led Police On Wild 2-State Chase

NEW YORK (AP)—A Czechoslovak diplomat, who killed his wife and led police in a wild two-state chase Thursday, died today of a bullet he fired into his brain after cracking up his big limousine.

The diplomat, Karel Zizka, about 40, died at St. Luke's Hospital at Fountain Hill, Pa., despite efforts by doctors to keep him alive.

Zizka stopped breathing around 7 a.m. Doctors quickly opened his chest, massaged his heart and he resumed breathing. However, his heart stopped again a little after 10:20 a.m. and this time it could not be restarted.

Zizka was an attaché of the Czech United Nations mission here.

He also had a shoulder wound inflicted by a Pennsylvania State trooper.

The body of Zizka's brown-haired wife, Vera, 40, a bullet through her head, lay unnoticed in their apartment in the Czech mission on upper Madison Avenue for hours as Zizka, leaving behind a note telling of the murder and his suicide intent, began his frenzied 75-mile flight. He drove a black Cadillac, owned by the mission and bearing diplomatic license plates.

Roaring away from the mission building, Zizka's car was involved in two minor traffic accidents near his home. He got out of them by claiming diplomatic immunity.

Zizka, 6-feet-2 and 240 pounds, then headed the car into New Jersey and stepped on the gas as he sped west on Route 22. Three Jersey State Police cars were after Zizka at speeds up to 110 miles an hour when the limousine crossed the state line, where Pennsylvania highway patrolmen took up the chase.

Near Easton, Pa., Zizka's car roared off the road, down an embankment, and overturned.

Cpl. John Uditis, alerted by radio, found the limousine with Zizka lying beside it.

"The man was lying there on his stomach," Uditis said. "He had a cigarette in his left hand and his right hand was concealed from view under his body."

Advancing with gun drawn, Uditis ordered Zizka to bring his right hand into view. But, said the trooper, "he just kept on smoking and kept his eyes trained on me. Upon my second order to bring out his hand empty it came out with a revolver in it. He pointed it at me and I fired."

In the next instant another shot rang out. Zizka had put his revolver in his right temple.

Inside the car, police said they found two broken bottles of vodka.

In the Zizka apartment were broken bottles of wine, whiskey and gin, and wild disorder. The official Czech statement said: "The flat was in a terrible state and demolished."

High A-Test Slated For Pacific Tonight

HONOLULU (AP) —Hope for success in the United States' high-altitude nuclear blast scheduled in the Pacific tonight rests with a missile untried in the Johnston Island tests.

Government scientists have temporarily put aside the ill-fated Thor missile in place of either a Nike-Hercules surface-to-air rocket or a specially constructed vehicle powered by a Sergeant missile motor.

2 Exceptions Made

Chester Personnel Given 90-Day Reappointments

Chester police, street and water employees were reappointed to 90-day terms by Council Thursday night following a ruling by the city solicitor that such temporary hirings were legal according to the city charter.

The exceptions to the ruling were the posts of water works superintendent and City Hall custodian, Mrs. Ruth Cox Turner, solicitor said, and Council named Lewis Govey, superintendent, and Mrs. Sylvia Bishop, caretaker, to two-year terms as required.

THE VOTE ON the controversial temporary appointments was split, with Councilmen Donald Chaney, Carl Graham and Wayne

Hutton in favor and Councilman Donald Hissam, opposed. Councilman Charles Kology was absent.

City employees retained included Police Chief Clarence Lennens, Patrolman Frank Fetty, Street Commissioner Hubert Myers, Jess Selmon, meter reader and Mrs. Twyla Finley, water works clerk.

About 70 attended the meeting. Chaney, Graham and Hutton had authorized 90-day appointments when the new administration took office in July, stating they wanted to determine the efficiency and duties of the city employees.

When the appointments expired, the councilmen moved to appoint for another 90-day period, but agreed to a public meeting on the matter Oct. 10 when arguments for and against the action were heard. Mrs. Turner was asked as to the legality of the move according to the charter.

Applications from Carl Price for duty as a special police officer and from Donald Poole and Albert Huff for city jobs were received, but action deferred until the next meeting.

In discussing the charter, Mrs. Turner said the water works superintendent and city custodian are to be employed for the terms of the administration. Other employees may hold office at the

U.S. 'Flunks' Third Test To Scout Moon

Ranger 5 Damaged By Radiation From High Nuclear Blasts

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The United States' third straight attempt to scout the moon by television has failed—possibly because of damage to the Ranger 5 lunar rocket by radiation from recent high altitude nuclear blasts.

The 755-pound camera-toting spacecraft, launched Thursday from Cape Canaveral, Fla., ran out of electrical power eight hours and 44 minutes later.

Scientists said this meant it would be unable to correct its course and would miss the moon by 300 miles.

It also meant Ranger 5 would not be able to operate its television camera nor to land a quake-measuring device on the moon's surface.

Pasadena's Jet Propulsion Laboratory, which built Ranger 5 and is tracking it through space, said the spacecraft apparently failed to draw electrical power from its wing-like solar panels to operate its instruments.

Its only source of power then was a small reserve battery with a life of eight to nine hours. That battery went dead just as scientists were trying to command the spacecraft to fire a small rocket that would re-aim it at the moon.

Cause of the failure of the solar power system was not announced, but there was unofficial speculation by some space experts that the craft's delicate solar cells could have been damaged by radiation from recent high altitude nuclear blasts over the Pacific.

Barron Noncommittal On Liquor Question

CHARLESTON (AP) — Gov. Barron was noncommittal yesterday in answering a news conference question on whether defeat of the Alcoholic Liquor Control Amendment Nov. 6 would be a mandate for stopping liquor by the drink sales in West Virginia.

Barron's answer was that such a development would not necessarily mean strict enforcement of liquor laws by closing private clubs.

He added, however, that while he wouldn't consider the amendment's failure an absolute mandate, it certainly would set a precedent and build an argument for closing such establishments.

Fire Destroys Large Barn In Rogers Area

ROGERS — The ruins of a large frame barn at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams of the Rogers - Clarkson Rd. continued to smolder today following a blaze which swept the structure starting about 9:30 Thursday night.

Rogers firemen, who wet down the nearby home and garage, said the barn and contents were a total loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams were visiting at New Waterford when the flames broke out, spotted by David Brugh of Rogers who was driving past at the time.

Cause of the fire was not determined firemen said. Negley firemen were summoned about 10 p.m. when it was feared extra help might be needed because wind was scattering sparks to the other buildings. Rogers firemen were recalled to the site — about a mile southeast of here — at 11:45 when small blazes ignited again.

An estimated 100 onlookers gathered at the scene as the blaze could be seen for some distance.

Car Victim Improves

Gregory Rhodes, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rhodes, who was struck by a car Oct. 11 near his Park Way home, is improving at City Hospital and was in "fair" condition today. He had been "critical" with head and internal injuries.

Due At Annual Dinner

Democrats Expect 1,000 To Hear Secretary Udall

A record attendance of over 1,000 is expected at the annual Columbiana County Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner to be held by county Democrats Saturday at Beaver Local High School.

U. S. Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall will be guest speaker for the event at 6:30 at the school near Williamsport.

Rep. Wayne L. Hays of Flushing, 18th District congressman, will also speak at the 10th annual dinner.

Others expected to attend, according to Don R. Gosney, county party chairman, include state candidates John J. Gallagher, for lieutenant governor; Robert E. Sweeney, for attorney general; Charles L. Babcock, for secretary of state; Thomas Ferguson, for treasurer, Lawrence Stacey, for state representative, along with State Rep. Edmund Sargus.

Neither Side Offers New Proposals

President, Rusk Confer At Length With Soviet Aide

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top level U.S.-Soviet talks on Berlin failed to yield any evidence today that a Kennedy-Khrushchev meeting next month could put an end to the Berlin crisis.

President Kennedy spent 11 hours and 15 minutes in discussion with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko at the White House Thursday, and Gromyko and Secretary of State Dean Rusk then continued the talks at the State Department for 4 1/4 hours—until after midnight.

A department spokesman said there was no change in the positions of either side in the Berlin dispute—positions which are regarded here as putting the Soviet Union and the Western powers on a collision course over West Berlin's future.

The spokesman also said the talks yielded "no perceptible progress" toward an accord and that neither side put forward any new proposals.

As he left the White House, Gromyko said he and Kennedy had discussed several important matters, one being Berlin. He did not specify any others. He characterized the talk as useful.

Asked about the prospect of Soviet Premier Khrushchev visiting the United States, Gromyko said, "At this moment I have nothing to say on this subject."

He thus left up in the air the question of Khrushchev's plans. But it is known that the Soviet leader is seriously considering a trip to the United Nations in New York next month and that he would like to talk with Kennedy about Berlin.

Kennedy is understood to have reservations about such a meeting unless there is hope it will result in easing the dispute. However, he has said that if Khrushchev comes to the United States he will see him.

Following the meeting at the State Department Gromyko told reporters that the Soviet position on the German peace treaty problem is the same as has been stated before.

Special Officer Takes Oath For Chester Duty

Joe Bryan, 25, of 554 Indiana Ave., Chester, was sworn in as a special officer this morning by Mayor Harry Abrams at the City Hall.

Bryan was appointed to the post by Council Oct. 3. An employee of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Co., he is married and has two sons.

He will serve only when directed to by Mayor Abrams or Police Chief Clarence Lennens, according to terms set by Council.

Union Issues Statement

Negotiations To Resume In Strike At Globe Brick

Globe Brick Co. and striking Local 647 of the International Brick and Clayworkers Union are scheduled to meet Tuesday morning at 10 in Hotel Wilk in Wellsville in another attempt to iron out five issues standing in the way of a settlement on a new contract.

The 226-member Local, headed by William G. Brewer of Newell, proposes that the five issues be submitted for arbitration. The proposition was rejected by the company.

Globe has requested that the local return its employees to their jobs while the five issues prolonging a settlement of the 49-day-old strike be negotiated.

The local's bargaining committee and A. G. Wagner, international union representative, meanwhile issued a statement in answer to the company's stand contained in a statement sent to employees and made public Oct. 15 by Winston A. Porter, president.

The local's and Wagner's joint statement follows in part:

"Mr. Winston A. Porter has second-hand information in the negotiations of Local 647's dispute.

"First, the union is ready and willing to arbitrate the five issues involved in order to return members to work. What are these people afraid of in arbitration?"

"Secondly, arbitrators in the opinion of the AFL-CIO are fair-minded people and would base their decisions and findings on evidence presented by the parties.

"The company president states an outsider would not be familiar with company operations and practices. The union is well aware that company operations and practices are its way, and second party, the union, has no recourse but to alter this method of practice and operation through negotiations.

"In five years of the agreement in effect at Globe Brick Co., the union has always been told when grievances have been processed to the fourth step, that they would have to arbitrate the grievances for settlement by the company.

"Then they refuse an outsider to try and help settle the dispute at this time. The union feels that the company is not consistent with its practice and operations for arbitration.

"Thirdly, the union does not expect to tell the company how to operate the plant. The proof: jobs have been abolished in the past five years and the union never raised a fuss about these jobs being abolished, as it realized the work was not present for these operations.

"The union is not seeking the creation of jobs at Globe Brick Co. We are only asking the company to post for bids the jobs that are presently being done by laborers and outside contractors that are Local 647's jurisdiction.

"In his statement, Mr. Porter admits when there is work on these job classifications and laborers do the work, they will pay the higher classification rate. In the past year, one of the carpenters took his pension. Since the carpenter took his pension, the company has one of the laborers continually doing this work, along with an outside contractor. They refuse to post this job for carpenter apprentice.

"The union is not seeking from any arbitrator any control of jobs or control of their plant, but we do know or can prove the work on these jobs we are asking the company to post for bid still is in existence at the plant.

"The union is not seeking or asking for 10 jobs or 30 jobs to be created, but asking that jobs, where work is presently there and being done by other people, be posted for bid so older employees in seniority have a right to express their rights to bid the posted jobs.

"The union is very much desirous to have the company in operation and employees working, but not on terms of Globe Brick. We have tried for five years to have a clear understanding on these very same issues as of today.

"The same answer for the past five years at step four of the grievance procedure has always been, take it to arbitration, by the company. The local does not have this kind of money to arbitrate each and every grievance, as arbitration is very expensive for both parties.

"The union stands ready and willing to settle these issues in dispute at the present time. The union also feels they are minor issues and will not place a burden or hardship on Globe Brick.

"The work is there and rightly belongs to members of Local 647. We have never asked or requested the company to give up their rights or privileges as the agreement provides for certain rights and privileges for employees, and the company is denying the employees these rights and has been for the past several years.

"That's all the members are seeking and asking — that their rights under the agreement be restored in order that the agree-

It's Pitiful, He Says

Man's In Court 13th Time In 16 Years Of Marriage

Facing Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today on a non-support charge, Ralph Swoger testified it's the 13th time in 16 years of marriage that his wife, Verla, has caused his arrest.

"We've been in and out of this place so many times it's pitiful," Swoger told the judge. "Every time there's a little spat she files charges or calls the police."

The couple's testimony indicated the latest misunderstanding came to a head Tuesday when the husband and two of the children moved to a home on Norton St., complying with an eviction notice from the landlord. But the wife and the two other children remained in the former home on Oakland Ave., minus most of the furniture.

Swoger told the court his wife refused to move out of the familiar East End neighborhood. She said she wasn't asked to go along when the husband and two children moved, "but they asked if we could come and visit them."

Swoger was before the judge on an affidavit alleging he had failed to furnish necessary food, clothing and shelter for the four children since June 1. Mrs. Swoger testified he had given her $119 "and a few groceries" during the summer.

The husband declared the support was much more substantial. Swoger, a brick-layer, said he has been working part-time. His wife said the eviction notice was served because they were "eight or nine months behind" in the rent on the East End home.

"It appears you have been using the court as a club over your husband's head," Judge Chertoff told Mrs. Swoger, but she denied the charge. She said she has been working to help support the family.

"After 16 years of fighting and bickering, isn't it time you decided to agree to go your separate ways or live together in peace?" the judge asked the couple. "When you bring your husband into court every time he does something you don't like, it seems vicious," the judge told the wife.

Judge Chertoff commented that it appeared from the evidence that the husband "has not done his fair share" toward supporting the family. But under the law, the neglect must be "wilful," he added.

Dismissing the charge, he warned Swoger to refrain from drinking in the future and to provide his family with more support.

Car Motor Damaged In Blaze Of Backfire

A carburetor backfire was blamed for a fire which damaged the motor and destroyed the right front tire on a 1956 sedan owned by George Serago, operator of the Speedy Car Wash, 220 Broadway, late Thursday afternoon.

Firemen said a new battery had been installed and the car backfired as the engine started. The fire burned the flexible hose on the fuel pump, causing flaming gasoline to squirt onto the tire.

The alarm was received at 5:44 p.m.

East End firemen were called to Sylvia's Lounge, 1314 Pennsylvania Ave., operated by Sylvia Blazer.

Firemen said a motor on the furnace was burned out because it was overfused. The motor was removed and taken outside, firemen said.

Canton Doctor Admits Bomb Threat, Fined

NEW YORK (AP) — Threatening to put an atomic bomb aboard a Pan American World Airways plane has cost an Ohio physician a $500 fine.

Dr. Jose Gonzales Guzman of Canton, Ohio, interrupted his trial in U.S. District Court Thursday and admitted uttering the threat.

Judge Matthew Abruzzo immediately fined him, saying: "We have got to stop making these irresponsible statements."

The doctor entered his guilty plea after the government rested its case and the defense was about to begin.

He was accused of making the threat June 30 after a clerk told him no reservation was available for the following day on a flight to the Dominican Republic.

ment between the parties will be workable during its existence.

"Of the six pages of requests presented to Globe at the start of negotiations, the union has dropped all requests except the five main issues at present. Then who talks about being fair?"

"We do not want the company to give the union their right of control of management or right to operate their plant, but the union only wants its rights under the agreement, which the company has denied these employees for the past several years.

"We are not asking a creation of jobs, but posting of jobs that are in existence until the helper moved up to maintenance."

"I fail to follow your fairness that was stated in your letter to the press Oct. 15 and to 226 employees. Local Union 647 has leaned over backwards to try and make a peaceful settlement of these issues, but the company can only say 'no.'"

"Local 647 and the international representatives are ready and willing to meet and absolve these issues, which are part of the agreement and which your company and agents refused to follow through the agreement with Local 647 in the past several years."

"The union feels and hopes that the company and Local 647 are big enough to settle these issues at the meeting to be held at the Hotel Wilk in Wellsville Tuesday, Oct. 23, at 10 a.m."

Nikita Will Be In Form

The question is whether if Premier Khrushchev makes another appearance in this country we will still act as if he were a traveling circus, or take him in our stride. So far we haven't grown up enough to handle the man intelligently. What with television, cameras, radios and reporters giving him the impression he is supposed to put on a holy show, he can't be blamed for doing it. That is not to imply he should be snubbed — only to wonder why he can't be handled with the same dignity and taste expected when the No. 1 government figure of other countries shows up in New York City. What is the peculiar fascination of the Khrushchevs and the Castros that causes the news media to go into nip-ups and spasms whenever these showmen appear in the United States?

WHEN OUR own political leaders go abroad there are staged demonstrations to soften them up for the next foreign aid bite. The streets are filled with cheering natives by command of the government. But let a Khrushchev show up in New York City and the problem is to keep crowds from trampling the barricades. Or let a Castro show up, complete with beard and a crate of chickens for him and his associate chicken-pluckers to tear apart, and he's the greatest attraction since the Human Fly climbed the front of the bank building back in Foxtown. We don't blame them; we blame ourselves. Communists fascinate us. We look on them as little children look on "wild men" in carnivals. They are the half-men-half-women of political show business, and they make the most of their chance to strut in the spotlight. A LARGE PART of communism is in the imagination of the wide-eyed throngs. Communists appeal to. The things they talk about are all unproved theory; communism never has worked anywhere. Their stock in trade is an image of strong-armed leadership—giants with a sense of historic purpose pitted against aimless weaklings blown hither and yon by whim and caprice—the men against the boys. Everybody knows this. Everybody talks about it. Everybody deplores it. But does anyone want to bet if Khrushchev visits the United Nations this fall there won't be the greatest extravaganza since Barnum turned Tom Thumb into the hottest property in show business? And it won't be his fault. It will be the fault of the United States. It will be the fault of all of us who go to pieces at the idea of having a real, live man-eating, double-jointed, shoe-pounding Communist in our midst. Until we learn to take such people in our stride, we can't complain when they take manifest delight in throwing us into confusion.

Ever-Present Danger By 1964 traffic will be flowing over the new Shippingport Bridge, speeding access to the South Side area and eliminating the treacherous railroad crossing which claimed still another life Thursday morning. Development of new highway and bridges over the years gradually has reduced these hazardous intersections of steel tracks and concrete roads. Gone are the tragic memories of Barclay's near Ohio View, the crossing at Summitville and others where overpasses or bridges have made travel safe. But throughout this district there remain many crossings — guarded and unguarded — where death awaits the unwary driver. The crossbars at every railroad track must continue to be a reminder to Stop. Look and Listen, otherwise a moment of carelessness, a change in weather conditions, a lapse of caution in the monotony of routine will add to the toll.

Selectivity In The Classroom

In Ohio's tax-supported universities a grim and inexorable process of selection is grinding away in classrooms, in libraries and dormitory rooms—the survival of the academic fittest. Shocking results have been chalked up in recent years. It has been demonstrated beyond possibility of contradiction that far too many students either unable or unwilling to meet even a modest academic pace were being admitted to tax-supported schools at great cost to Ohio taxpayers and no benefit to the students. When large percentages of first-year students fail to make the grade on the first round of examinations and substantial percentages of second-year students and even upperclassmen fall by the wayside every examination, the lesson is plain. Higher education is a ready-made process of selection. It is absurd to assume that everybody who applies for a place in a state-supported school is automatically eligible to take a crack at it. No football, basketball or track coach would think of running his department on a basis of come-one-come-all. Why, then, should teachers and administrators be required to cope with students unable to "make the team" when most of the unqualified applicants could be rejected automatically by setting up minimum standards for entrance? In voluntary colleges and universities that cannot afford to provide expensive facilities for would-be students who cannot meet the academic pace, dropouts are rare. It is assumed that a student once admitted will continue until graduation despite academic standards higher than they ever can be raised in public institutions. Ohio has been making progress in selectivity. It has set up minimum requirements that have eased the dropout problem. But the grim and inexorable process of selection still grinds away in the classroom and under the study lamps. It is now in full swing. Those who seek higher education, whether at public or private expense, are hitting full stride now in the attempt to prove they are capable of taking advantage of it.

Any Comment? U.S. News & World Report has compiled these attendance records of Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy during their first 632 days in office: Mr. Eisenhower: In the White House 408 days, elsewhere 224 days. Mr. Kennedy: In the White House 392 days, elsewhere 240 days. The record, according to U.S. News' compilation, gives Mr. Kennedy the undisputed championship as the nation's most-out-of-town president. What say now the Democrats who used to criticize Mr. Eisenhower?

Waiting For May

Someone inquired how the sheep are doing in Rosy Fingered Dawn these October days. Fine, just fine, thanks. There's a new arrangement now—planned parenthood. It is supposed to work like this: Next Spring's lambs, instead of being born when the weather is blustery, are to be born after new grass is ankle high and birds are building nests. This will obviate the one drawback that detracts from sheep as self-sharpening grass cutters — the hours of uncomfortable watching and waiting in a cold barn while lambs are a-borning. Hardy as the newcomers are and conscientious as their mothers are, a new lamb needs protection until its tightly curled wool has dried. Once dry, a lamb can survive any climatic shock. As it seems to be with people, newcomers among sheep show a preference for arriving at night, when temperatures are lowest. In years past they have arrived sometimes when the thermometer was flirting with zero, requiring quick action to keep them from freezing before they had scrambled to their feet and found the focal point of lambhood. In the absence of family planning the lambs were born haphazardly; that is, 157 days, or thereabout, after a moment of ardor the preceding fall. This had been working out on or about the last week in February and the first week in March — a time of climatic chaos. Next Spring it will work out on or about the first week in May. Even the first week in May isn't Miami Beach in this capricious climate, but the grass will be growing and an expectant mother can take a stroll through the meadow without encountering snow.

And how does Sam the Ram the Sheep What Am fit into the plan? Sam IS the plan. His arrival on the premises has been planned for Dec. 1. Heretofore old Sam has

By Truman Twill been a denizen. Henceforth he is to be a visitor. That's the plan. It's like a living link with the future when you think about it. The rest of us have no way of knowing what our lot in life will be by next May. But you can bet on it that there will be new lambs next May and birds' nests and flowers and green leaves. We may be thwarted but lambs won't be. They will come on strong. Fifteen minutes after birth they will be walking forward, sideways and backward. They will know their mothers. They will know how to eat and where to get it. In an hour they will have explored their world. In a day they will be butting their companions. In these days geared to melancholia it is reassuring to think about Sam and May and green grass and still-legged lambs butting each other among buttercups. More reassuring than Cuba, Berlin, Laos, South Vietnam, North Vietnam, the elections, the high cost of being sick, confidence in the dollar and weekend traffic fatalities. Which explains why someone's always inquiring how the sheep are doing. It's nice to know something's doing fine, just fine, thanks. No problems. Just waiting for May.

This And That During the past year, Americans dropped about $1,800 million in coins into vending machines, not counting telephones, parking meters and service meters — and for these coins they received items ranging from hot coffee, cold drinks, hot soup, cigarettes, and fresh fruit drinks to pocket combs, toothbrushes, handkerchiefs, music, and hot meals. The words of the first 10 amendments to the U.S. Constitution, known as the Bill of Rights, came from the pen of President James Madison. The Bill of Rights is generally acknowledged to be the finest expression of simple human freedom in the history of the world.

Kennedy Stand On Contracts Criticized

There is no issue on which the American people are more sensitive than fundamental integrity in public office. Many an otherwise able official has been defeated at the polls because of a scandal or an irregularity in the handling of the people's business based on selfish, private interest rather than the public interest. President Kennedy has just made a speech which amounts to a confession that he puts private, political interest above the public interest.

David Lawrence

He says, in effect, that, with his help, a Democratic governor of a state can get more lush contracts out of the Defense Department than a Republican can. He may rationalize this to himself as just politics and hence permissible as a part of the "game." But when it involves the people's money — the billions of dollars they pay in taxes each year, presumably for the public welfare and the national defense — it is bound to cause a different reaction. IN A SPEECH at McKeesport, Pa., Oct. 13, President Kennedy asked the people to elect former Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia as governor of Pennsylvania on the Democratic ticket this year to succeed the present Democratic governor. Mr. Kennedy said that Mr. Dilworth "is the kind of progressive, experienced legislator that this state, one of our great industrial states, is going to need." According to the transcript of the speech issued by the White House, Mr. Kennedy then added: "For example, in the last 10 years, Pennsylvania, which used to be one of the great defense manufacturers in this country, found itself washed out. While all the new defense industry went to those parts of the country where industry and universities and government had worked to make it possible for them to secure contracts. "Working with Gov. Lawrence since 1960, we have increased by 50 per cent the number of prime defense contracts that come to Pennsylvania, job retraining, cleaning our rivers, area redevelopment, increasing our food supplies for those on relief — all these measures which can be brought about with a progressive, Democratic governor, working with all of us. So I am hopeful that you are going to elect in this state Dick Dilworth to be governor of Pennsylvania."

they be awarded on the basis of political party? Republicans, if so happens, pay into the Treasury of the United States a vast amount of taxes — perhaps even more than Democrats, as so many businessmen and creators of jobs are generally reported to be Republican. Has any president the right to distribute defense contracts on the basis of the political party affiliation of the governor of a state? Shall elections be won by allocating the people's money in undue proportion to those states governed by the political party which happens to be in league with the party of the national administration? Is this fair to the other states which exercise their right to pick governors of the opposite political party because they may think the Republican candidate is better qualified and will give them a better administration in their state?

'Let Me Take You To The Casbah.'

Tape Recording Betrayed Reds In Guinea

By VICTOR RIESEL In the private files of the President of the United States is a tape recording given him by the president of the African Republic of Guinea. It is the tradition of a visiting head of state to bear gifts to his host. This gift, secretly made, delighted John Kennedy when it was presented to him last Wednesday during a confidential two-hour talk in his White House office. It contains a melange of clear voices which, though speaking voices, bring music to the ears of the listeners. This recording, presented by President Sekou Toure, was made through a microphone secretly planted inside the Soviet Embassy in Conakry, capital of Guinea.

complicated by a strike which was to spark a revolt against the government. In other lands the Communists would have kicked off the drive with factory riots. But Guinea is mostly tribal and jungle. MOST INFLUENTIAL union was the teachers organization. Its members are part of the intellectual circles which make up the government cadres of most African nations. Through the teachers the Communist apparatus hoped to win sympathy not only among the government workers, but among the youth, the radio and news media there, women's groups and cultural organizations. Furthermore, the teachers were legitimately dissatisfied. Sekou Toure's treasury had few coins in it. Teachers' pay was low and they sometimes went unpaid. Swiftly, then, the Communist undercover cadres went into action. They distributed turbulent leaflets. They called for action by the teachers. Student cells were thrown into the operation. Soon there was wild rioting. The president of Guinea was threatened with death. Thousands of innocent teachers and students were swept into the battle — unknowing thousands — unaware that the tactics were carefully planned by trained Soviet revolutionaries. But Sekou Toure, the nation's president, is also president of the country's labor federation, known as the National Confederation of Guinean Workers (CNTG). That organization once had been a section of the French Communist party's General Confederation of Labor (CGT), when Guinea was part of the French colonial empire. Toure, once a comrade of the comrades, knew their tactics. HE CALLED out the army. He countered cell with cell, muscle with muscle, siege with siege. He arrested the strike leaders. On Nov. 19 he convened a special high court of justice. In a few days it condemned the Communist strike leaders to prison — two of them to 10 years, others to 5. They are there now. Toure moved unhesitatingly. Because he was the president of the labor movement as well as the country, he had planted his people in the strike committee. Toure knew every secret rendezvous of the Communist cadres. He knew that the inner command group had been meeting right inside the Soviet Embassy — and with Moscow's ambassador, Daniel Solod. Toure was aware that Solod was directing strategy, providing money, agents and even mimeograph equipment for the leaflets. After the strike was crushed, Sekou Toure invited Ambassador Solod to a fine dinner in the presidential home. As is traditional, after the delightful French banquet Mr.

Toure invited Mr. Solod into the library for brandy, coffee and cigars — and some recorded music. Solod relaxed to the strains of a fine hi-fi. SUDDENLY the Russian heard his own voice come over the speaker. He heard himself plotting with the strike cadres. Then all went quiet. Finally President Toure said—now you can get out, and not only out of my home but out of my country. The ambassador knew he had been had by the man he had tried to take. Toure had "bugged" the Soviet Embassy. The Russian left quickly on Dec. 15, 1961. As he flew East, Toure turned to the West. And when he was here last week, Toure snubbed the Cubans. He called a private meeting of the African bloc to explain why. And he gave President Kennedy a "copy" of the tape. This was one we didn't lose.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW: I am writing in regard to the proposed constitutional amendment relative to the sale, processing or rendition of certain commodities, products and services on Sunday. In Section 21, it mentions at the end any food item or food product for human or animal consumption. Read this section carefully, it may be misleading. Please vote No when you go to the polls in November. There is no need to go to stores on Sunday if you buy enough on Saturday to do you over Sunday. The argument in favor of being open on Sunday seems so foolish when you realize that we have refrigeration to keep foods for long periods of time. How flimsy our excuses must seem to Almighty God. In Exodus 16:22,23,24 we read, "And it came to pass, that on the sixth day, they gathered twice as much bread. And He said unto them: This is that which the Lord hath said, Tomorrow is the rest of the holy Sabbath unto the Lord; bake today and seethe that which ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning. And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade, and it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein." "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work, but the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God. Ex. 20:8." God's word will stand when this world is on fire. (II Peter 3:7) Psalm 119:105 tells us, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." ROSE DIDDLE Rt. 1, Wellsville the cause of the minority, but whose real purpose is to undermine the governments of free nations. Beware of those so-called crusaders who stir up crowds to hysteria and rioting and bloodshed. And crusaders who do not encourage the use of the proper legal channels of government to settle a genuine grievance. I warn you, fellow Americans, to beware of those who seek to destroy your government and to enslave you through your typical willingness to follow anyone who has a patriotic sounding slogan. The Soviet will stop at nothing to accomplish its purpose. Forget that for one instant and you will be asking God to help you. KARL REINHART Wellsville

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW: Organizations sponsoring public suppers should work out a solution so that less food is wasted. Either lower the price and give smaller servings or charge more for a second helping. It is not right, in my opinion, to throw so much food away when there are so many hungry people in the world. I have helped with to many of these affairs that plate after plate comes back with only half of the food consumed. Billy Graham says America wastes enough food to feed China. NANCY SWARTZ Wellsville

Odd Facts The mammal class of animal includes those that bring their young forth alive, and nourish them with milk from their own bodies. They range in size from the 60-foot whale down to the shrew, two inches long. Approximately 35,000 Canadians cross the border into the United States every year in search of jobs. The bee has three small eyes on the crown of its head and a great compound eye on each side.

THE POLITICIANS themselves are not alone responsible. The American people are really responsible for what is happening. They have not reacted as yet to the irregularities in Washington. Perhaps it's because they don't know about them. But when a president of the United States reveals that he distributes the taxpayers' money, not on the basis of efficiency or to the best qualified contractor or the lowest bidder, but on the arbitrary basis of helping a fellow Democrat in a governor's chair, the details ought no longer to be kept secret. The country may truly be "moving again," but it is moving back toward the reactionary times of Boss Mark Hanna of the McKinley era and to the days of Boss Tweed of Tammany Hall.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Ed Pittenger was named president of the Young Men's Club of the East Liverpool First Presbyterian Church. Wellsville's financial needs for the next year were estimated at $107,500 in a budget approved by Council. John McIntosh, oil operator, was named chief of police at New Cumberland. TWENTY YEARS AGO — Miss Dorothy Baumgard of Anderson Blvd. enrolled in the nurses training school of Mercy Hospital in Canton. The Rev. G. Lincoln Caddell of Jackson, Miss., was appointed to the pastorate of Lee's Chapel of the African Methodist Episcopal Church at Wellsville, succeeding the Rev. W. T. Watson. TEN YEARS AGO — Standley T. Hilbert was named to head a five-man committee to arrange the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce. James D. Clunk, son of Mrs. Eddie Riddle of Pennsylvania Ave., was promoted to master sergeant at an Air Force base in The Azores. Forty-eight persons, members of the First Methodist Church for 50 years or over, were honored at a dinner celebrating the 125th anniversary of the congregation. The worst fire hazards in the American home are defective or misused stoves and heaters. These cause 14 per cent of all home fires and 20 per cent of home-fire deaths.

Fund Request For Midland Project Aired

The Midland Municipal Authority Wednesday night discussed its application for federal funds for water plant expansion and for a new parking lot now under construction.

The authority learned from Granville Kester, engineer for Michael Baker Jr., Inc. of Rochester, that the application for funds under the accelerated public works program will be completed in two weeks.

Atty. Robert Masters, authority solicitor, will work on the application with Kester, who said a separate application will be made for funds for the parking lot projects.

The authority recently asked the government for application forms and information to seek a $300,000 grant.

The authority doubts a grant will be made. Kester said the government might give half the cost of the project. If the grant is made, a contract must be awarded within 60 days, work started within 90 days and the project completed by June 1, 1964.

The application must also include approval from the State Department of Health, since it is a water plant project, and a letter from engineers who made the borough's comprehensive plan, that the project conforms to the plan.

The authority must also furnish rates and the number of customers. According to qualifications of the federal act, the authority still must plan to spend next year whatever it would have planned for capital construction. A budget of next year must accompany the application.

Kester also gave the authority, the engineers' recommendation to proceed in the near future with the water plant expansion due to an anticipated increased use by the Crucible Steel Co. over the next few years and plans to serve the Ohioville area.

The water plant is also in need of a new laboratory and additional office space. Plans also include additional filters and two more basins.

At the authority's meeting Sept. 19, it gave the engineers permission to complete expansion plans.

Kester said financing, other than the grant, could be done by a bank loan or by revenue bonds.

In connection with financing, the authority agreed to ask Crucible representatives to the next meeting Nov. 14 to discuss expansion and rates.

Concerning the authority's new parking lot now under construction in the 700 block of Midland Ave., approval was given to order 18 gold-colored meters from the Kountz Equipment Co. of Pittsburgh.

Dr. Zanvel Sigal, chairman, said rates would be 5 cents for a half hour, 10 cents an hour, 25 cents for four hours and the meters will accept two quarters for eight hours of parking and will have a slot for tokens.

Signing of a contract with the Duquesne Light Co. for power for mercury vapor lighting of the lot was approved on the engineer's recommendation. The cost will be $127.44 a year.

On motion of Rudolph Presutti, the authority agreed to request that Borough Council ask Crucible to turn over two lots the company offered. A lot at 7th St., behind the First National Bank, will provide about 40 stalls for parking and another near the company's 6th St. sign, for 33 stalls.

On recommendation of Donald Craik, manager, the authority agreed to advertise for bids for chemicals for next year. The bids will be opened in November and contracts awarded in December.

Presutti, also labor chairman, said he is waiting a reply from the representative of the water department employees' union as to when he can attend an authority meeting for negotiations on a new contract. The present contract, which expired at the end of September covers about 10 employees.

Rabbi, Beaten Viciously, Dies; Vengeance Asked

NEW YORK (AP)—They buried Rabbi Bernard Eisdorfer, and the people cried for vengeance against his murderer.

His skull had been fractured in a vicious beating as he walked along a Brooklyn street near his home in the Williamsburg section Monday night.

He never regained consciousness. Thursday, Rabbi Eisdorfer, 55, died in a hospital.

The motive for the beating — unknown.

Police said they had no lead on who did it.

It was almost ironic, and the people knew it.

They knew the rabbi had come to this country 14 years ago from Czechoslovakia, where he had survived Nazi persecution during the war. Now he was dead at the hands of one or more hoodlums—not necessarily Nazis, but just as vicious.

And it had happened in a land where he had come to escape from just that type of tormentor. That was what angered the people, inflamed them into almost hysterical fury.

There were some 10,000 of them, and they gathered on the street Thursday outside the Yeshiva Yetev Lev D'Satmar where Rabbi Eisdorfer had been treasurer.

Some in the crowd sobbed openly.

Six rabbis drew up a telegram. "The entire community cries for and demands immediate protection," it said. Copies of the wire went to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Mayor Robert F. Wagner and Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy.

Testimony Heard In Hancock Case

NEW CUMBERLAND — Testimony continued today in Hancock County Circuit Court in a civil suit in which an elderly Steubenville woman seeks to recover $7,000 in cash she allegedly gave to a Weirton couple.

Maria Tosi contends the $7,000 was a down payment on a $25,000 sum she was to pay Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Kerr of Weirton for caring for her during her lifetime.

The plaintiff claims the verbal agreement with the couple failed to materialize, and that the $7,000 was used by the Kerrs as a down payment on a new dwelling.

Counsel for the Steubenville woman rested her case Thursday afternoon, and the defense witnesses were to testify today. Judge Ralph E. Pryor is presiding.

Judge Convicts Man Without Jury Trial

LISBON—A 24-year-old Campbell man charged with burglary of a Columbiana record shop was found guilty Thursday morning by Common Pleas Judge Raymond Buzzard after the defendant waived a jury trial.

Ronald R. Hathman, indicted for the March 16 burglary at the J. & E. Record Shop, waived a jury trial Wednesday and asked the court to hear the case.

Sentencing was continued pending a period to permit filing a motion for a new trial.

Emmett Perkins, 24, and William L. Johnson, 30, also of Campbell, had pleaded guilty earlier to the same burglary and requested probation. Perkins testified yesterday against Hathman who said he had been drinking at the time and was too intoxicated to have assisted in the crime.

pleasure of Council, she said, explaining the charter states Council has the power to fix the term of the workers and their compensation.

GRAHAM asked if Council agreed to uphold the charter. Hutton made the motion to hire the employees other than Govey and Mrs. Bishop for 90 days, and the move was approved.

Hutton read sections of the city charter concerning duties and terms and enforcement powers of the administration and employees, declaring Council is the ruling body and the mayor has control of the police.

"I have heard the slot machines are running in town, but are shut down during Council meetings," he went on. "If this is so, it is hypocrisy. Each councilman should enforce the law in his own ward."

At his suggestion, City Clerk Roy Cashdollar read the oath required by councilmen.

AT HUTTON'S request, a special meeting was scheduled for Oct. 29 at 6:30 p.m. with city officials and employees to discuss their work.

A talk and demonstration on parking meters was given by Ry-men Stump of Martins Ferry, representative of the Park-O-Meter Co. of Oklahoma City, Okla., who recommended 100 meters be installed between 4th and 6th Sts. in the business section.

Council, which received a similar demonstration from the representative of the Rockwell Co. of Pittsburgh recently, took no action pending estimates from other firms.

Graham said the proposal to install meters deserves study.

NO ACTION was taken on a request from William Harper for the city to provide water for a planned housing development for elderly persons along Middle Run Rd. on the former J. E. Harper farm about two miles south of Chester.

Chaney said an engineer should be consulted to determine if water can be supplied. Harper said plans call for 50 double-unit apartments to be erected. He said he will erect three standpipes for water storage, and will pay for the water extension project.

Harper requested a letter from Mayor Harry Abrams and Council on the city co-operation to present to federal officials at Washington.

Council approved plans of firemen for a community Halloween celebration Oct. 31, including use of 4th St. and a parade.

GRAHAM reported re-sealing of 17 city streets has been completed. He said the street department will collect leaves Monday and Tuesday if residents place them in containers at the curbs. He reminded residents burning of leaves on blacktop streets is prohibited.

Mrs. Turner distributed copies of a proposed dog control ordinance for study by Council. Chief Lennens was granted permission to take his vacation next week.

Bills totaling $2,549 were paid. Receipts amount to $2,487 according to Cashdollar.

The welcome address will be given by Stacey.

Introductions of county and state officials and candidates will be made by County Auditor Kenneth Bell, Atty. Guy Mauro, vice chairman, and Mrs. Kay Blackburn, county chairwoman.

County Judge Herbert Arfman will present the state candidates. Others on the program will be County Commissioner Frank Wilson, County Judge Luther Donbar and Atty. Paul Tobin, vice chairman. Gosney will be toastmaster.

3 Pass Exam For Vacancy

Three men in a field of eight scored passing grades in an examination held by the Municipal Civil Service Commission Wednesday night to make up an eligibility list for the $321-a-month post of billing machine operator in the city water department.

The commission listed the names of the successful applicants after meeting at its office in City Hall Thursday afternoon to grade the papers. Named in the order in which they finished, they are: William D. Griffith, 411 W. 4th St., Paul H. Zehnder, 1323 Fairmont St., and Jay C. Mason, 1073 Mapletree St.

Forms for physical examinations were sent to all the successful applicants. As soon as they have been completed by a physician and returned, the commission will certify all three names to the Board of Public Utilities, which administers the water department.

In case of an original appointment, the names of the three top men on the eligibility list are certified.

The vacancy was created by the recent death of Lee B. Carroll, who held the post many years.

The papers were graded by Donald I. Burcham, chairman, and Atty. Ben H. Berman, members of the commission, and P. K. Calhoun, secretary. A. A. Fiorello, the third member of the commission, is hospitalized.

No action was taken to set a new date for an examination to fill a vacant police department lieutenantcy. A test was held about two months ago, but the commission decided none of the applicants scored a passing grade, based on a ruling on seniority credit issued by Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper.

Democratic Voting Edge In Hancock

Democrats will have a plurality of 6,204 votes over the Republicans for Hancock County's general election Nov. 6, according to the new voter registration totals compiled by the office of Donald Stewart, county clerk.

The new figures show a total of 21,470 countians are eligible to vote — 13,811 Democrats, 7,607 Republicans and 52 independents.

The figures compare with the 22,393 registered for the presidential election in 1960. At that time, there were 14,812 Democrats, 8,164 Republicans and 42 independents registered to vote.

The registration totals for each of the three magisterial districts in the county are:

Grant District — 2,731 Democrats, 2,289 Republicans, and six independents, a total of 5,026 eligible voters.

Clay District — 1,687 Democrats, 826 Republicans, and four independents, 2,517.

Butler District — 9,393 Democrats, 4,492 Republicans and 42 independents, 13,927.

Of the 22 precincts in Butler District in the Weirton area, only two show the Republicans with a greater registration than the Democrats. They are Precincts 30 and 31, both on Marland Heights.

Mansfield Firm Low In Flood Project Bid

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—The R. G. Beer Corp. of Mansfield, Ohio, submitted the apparent low bid on a flood protection project at Newark, Ohio, the U.S. Army Engineers here announced. The firm's bid was $72,947.50. The project includes construction of about 400 feet of levee with pump station.

DiSalle

responsibilities of the Industrial Development Division of the department was to advertise Ohio's resources. This, he said, has been halted because funds were cut.

He suggested financial support be provided to enable continuing promotional campaigns in leading newspapers, magazines and other media around the country.

Also in this division, DiSalle said, "It would seem advisable . . . to obtain the services of an expert in the field of labor-management to assist local communities in organizing labor-management committees to help work for and maintain labor peace in the vast industrial complex that is Ohio today."

For the Division of Travel and Recreation, the governor suggested an enlarged staff to serve as in-state and out-of-state travel representatives to help lure tourists and vacationers to the Buckeye State.

DiSalle suggested that a continuing program of advertising and promotion for tourism and recreation also should be supported, suggesting bringing together people directly interested in tourism — oil companies, restaurants, motels and hotels, and managers of parks and recreation areas. He said such a group could mount a privately-financed cooperative advertising effort to help sell Ohio to tourists.

Another plan is a radio band along interstate highways, broadcasting at intervals the points of interest available to tourists in nearby locations.

On the subject of planning, DiSalle suggested the department could use at least two more experts in the field to assist the one-man office now operating.

"Nearly every federal assistance program today requires a comprehensive master plan before such aid is forthcoming," he asserted, "and as our major cities develop into long strip-type cities, the need for orderly development will become more and more essential. This is a level at which the state can serve as a catalyst and a coordinator as well."

Chester Council O.K.'s Appointee

Appointment of Richard W. Lee, 42, of Florida Ave., Chester, as a member of the Chester Sanitary Board was approved by Council Thursday night.

Mayor Harry Abrams, also a member of the board, submitted the appointment of Lee to fill the term of the late J. A. Bower.

Lee, mine superintendent at the Globe Brick Co. of Newell, received a bachelor's degree at West Virginia University. He is married and has three children.

The sanitary board is in charge of plans for a proposed sewage disposal plant and system for which the city has received a $105,000 federal grant. John Piny is the third member.

Bidding Set Tuesday On Route 172 Bridge

The bridge, located over Beaver Creek, will be replaced by a pipe culvert. The existing weak and narrow bridge is one of the 1,083 structures making up Ohio's deficient bridge program, according to the Division 11 office at New Philadelphia.

The program, initiated in 1959, involves the replacement of 1,083 weak and narrow bridges at a total cost of $85 million. To date, 572 bridges have been replaced at a total cost of $44,108,000.

Inheritance of Allergy

Q. I have been dating a boy who has asthma. I suffer from hay fever. If we get married would our children have asthma and/or hay fever?

A. Parents with one or more allergic disease are likely to have children with some type of allergy. According to some authorities, about 50 percent of children would develop allergy if one parent was affected and 75 percent if both parents were allergic. The problem, however, isn't so serious because modern medical care can do wonders in the control of allergic disease. Anticipated further medical advances make allergies even less formidable in the future.

Miss Barbara Lowmiller And David Hephner Wed

LISBON — Gowned in Chantilly lace, Miss Barbara Lowmiller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lowmiller of Minerva R.D. 2, was united in marriage Sunday afternoon to David C. Hephner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hephner of Franklin Square Rd.

The Rev. Forrest Willis, minister, performed the double-ring ceremony at 2:30 o'clock in the New Franklin Methodist Church before the altar, banked with white gladioli, spider mums and palms.

Mrs. Dale Valentine of New Garden, cousin of the bridegroom, soloist, sang "I Love You Truly," "O Promise Me" and "Whither Thou Goest," accompanied by Mrs. Paul Blanchard.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents. Her lace gown was designed with a fitted Basque bodice and a scoop neckline, the scalloped edge accented by tiny seed pearls, with long tapered, pointed sleeves.

The bodice tapered to a point in front and flowed into a skirt of lace over tulle, with tulle inserts and appliqued lace and sequin motifs. The back of the skirt had cascading ruffles from the waistline to the hem.

A triple-tiered crown of sheer petals held her veil of nylon illusion. She carried a white Bible with a spray arrangement of white spider mums, daisy poms and French spider mums.

Miss Nancy Lowmiller was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Linda Lowmiller of Minerva, cousin of the bride, and Miss Nancy Hane of Robertsville.

Their gowns were fashioned alike, with a dropped waistline from the fitted bodice and three-quarter-length sleeves. The Sabrina neckline tapered to a V in the back and the bell-shaped skirts had a bustle back with a self bow and streamers.

They wore half-hats of satin and double bows, which held the circular face veils. The dress of the maid of honor was copper peau satin and the bridesmaids' were willow green peau satin. They carried bouquets of corresponding colored spider mums and daisy poms.

Wearing a gown of willow green peau satin, Esther Whiteleather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Whiteleather of Minerva, carried a basket of daisies and petals as flower girl for her cousin.

Charles Hinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hinner of Alliance, also a cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Larry Hephner, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Clark Birch of East Liverpool and Robert Hunter of Minerva were ushers.

The bride's mother chose a beige brocaded dress with green and brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a mocha lace dress with brown accessories. Their corsages were of yellow and copper poms.

A reception for 275 guests followed at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Lowmiller, of Minerva.

A green cloth and a white net overskirt covered the bride's table, which was centered with a four-tiered cake topped with a miniature bridal pair. Copper tapers and holders, amidst fall flowers, continued the autumn bridal theme.

Miss Karen Whitacre, Miss Janet Smith of Minerva and Miss Rhonda Hill of Lisbon served.

Relatives and friends were present from Cleveland, Northfield, Archbold, West Unity, Canton, Salem, Cadiz, Steubenville, East Palestine, Youngstown, Toronto, East Liverpool and Lisbon.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Minerva High School and the bridegroom graduated from David Anderson High School in 1960 and is engaged in farming with his father.

A trip through Virginia was the honeymoon destination. For going away, the bride wore a brown and green wool plaid suit with brown accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

They will reside at Lisbon R.D. 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hephner, parents of the bridegroom, entertained for the rehearsal party Saturday evening. Gifts were presented the attendants.

Probably 1964 For Ohioans

New Equalization Plan Due On Real Estate Taxes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohioans who pay real estate taxes may be in for another equalization program. But it probably won't come until 1964.

There's been talk at the State Board of Tax Appeals since at least 1961 about taking a statewide look at the values assigned property by county auditors for real estate tax purposes.

Edwin F. Sawicki, the board's chairman, says however, that he would rather wait to see what the legislature will do in 1963.

It's possible, Sawicki says, that lawmakers might set up a single yardstick for property appraisal in all 88 counties, perhaps using cost of reproducing the physical improvements on the property in a given year, minus depreciation and obsolescence.

By law, counties must re-appraise property once in every six years. Since Jan. 1, 1959, the board has directed them to use 1956 construction costs for buildings and other structures.

Twenty-three counties still are re-appraising property on the 1956 cost basis, and Sawicki says this is another reason for holding off on any statewide survey. He says the counties should be finished by July, noting that "it takes about a year to carry out one of these re-appraisals in a county."

It's been 10 years since the last equalization. The board told county auditors in 1952 that, based on past tax duplicates and its study of local property prices, their next abstract must show a valuation in the aggregate of at least 50 per cent of market value. Cuyahoga County, which fought it and lost, had to raise its duplicate 26.73 per cent. In the first equalization 51 years ago, Paulding County was raised 379 per cent. The only other equalization was in 1926.

Valuation set by the auditor is the one against which the realty tax of up to 10 mills—a penny—is levied. Voters can authorize levies beyond this penny-on-the-dollar.

Rhodes Declares Jobs Main Issue In Vote Drive

CLEVELAND (AP)—James A. Rhodes, Republican candidate for governor, says Ohio's "weak and sick economy and the resulting loss of thousands of jobs" is the major issue of the campaign.

He told four GOP ward meetings Thursday night "we must get jobs for our jobless and we must look to our educational needs, our youth problems, treatment of our mentally ill and sound money management."

The state auditor urged Ohio voters to "keep your eyes on the legitimate issues in this gubernatorial campaign," adding:

"We must develop coherency of all programs, and it is important that Ohioans reject the incoherent, the untrue and the outright mud in order that these issues not be lost from sight. Any and all efforts to obscure the facts with tissues of fiction must be ignored."

Review Changes

Changes in newspaper production, including various innovations at The Review in the past 10 years, were discussed by George Shaw, Review advertising manager, at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday.

Speaking in a National Newspaper Week program, Shaw said there had been a few major developments in the news printing industry since the first movable type and later rotary press inventions.

However, the press of rising operating costs of the World War II era had brought a number of production changes which provided for faster and more efficient operations, Shaw said.

For example, The Review has decreased the size of its pages to provide for an easier - to - read type, and has switched from metal engraving of pictures to in-plant plastic engraving.

The Review has also utilized UPI Telephoto service for up-to-the-minute wire pictures, operates with telephoto tape for setting type, and has begun using colored inks, Shaw said.

The future holds even better production techniques for all newspapers, including offset printing which provides for improved color and other advantages, he concluded.

Shaw was introduced by Don Thompson, program chairman.

Suspended In

Lack Of Cash

An unemployed potter agreed today with Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff that he did not have the cash to pay a fine on a speeding charge, so the court instead ordered a 20-day suspension of his operator's permit.

James H. Potts, 729½ Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, pleaded guilty to a State Highway Patrol charge of speeding 85 miles an hour Saturday night in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd.

Potts told the judge he is employed at the Sterling China Co., but has been laid off. The judge ordered him to pay the costs.

Another man cited at the same time for a similar offense is scheduled for a hearing Nov. 2 at 9 a. m.

John H. Dawson of Calcutta was driving ahead of Potts, also at an 85-mile-an-hour clip, but the two were not racing, the patrol said.

A hearing is set Oct. 30 at 9 a. m. for Edwin H. Firestone, 21, of 2245 St. Clair Ave., accused of hitting speeds up to 90 miles an hour Monday night on the Y. & O. Rd. near Glenmoor.

He was cited by the patrol after a chase that began on Route 30 and continued into Glenmoor.

Arch Moore

Talks To 250

A crowd of 250 heard a 35-minute address Thursday night in the Chester American Legion home by Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr. of Glen Dale, candidate for re-election as 1st District congressman.

The 39-year-old Republican legislator ripped the present administration's foreign aid program which he indicated is linked to a decline of pottery and steel industries in this country.

Moore, the state's only GOP member in either the House or Senate for the past four years, also outlined his activities in Washington, declaring he has "always voted in the interest of all people, and has never been a rubber stamp legislator."

Moore also asserted that his opponent in the Nov. 6 general election — Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey, 78, of Clarksburg — has rejected each challenge to a public debate on campaign issues.

His address was preceded by brief visits in Newell, Pugh-town and New Cumberland, with large crowds attending, according to Hancock County GOP officials.

Dale Allison of Chester was toastmaster for the rally in Chester.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Why do some people attract calamity? Is it just rotten luck or what? A friend of mine has a broken leg for the second time in 16 months. (Same leg.) Since I've known her she never has been without a cast, crutches or bandages. She has had cuts from broken glass, concussion from a bump on the head, burns from the stove and bruises from falls in the bathtub.

No one can persuade me that people do these things intentionally. After all, who wants pain and doctor bills? Is there some explanation for this? — NO SABEMOS.

Dear No Sabemos: We all know at least one "Hard Luck Hannah." My father used to say, "If it was raining soup, she'd have a fork."

Misfortune, indeed, does seem to dog certain people. These individuals are accident-prone. They subconsciously want to hurt themselves. The pain they suffer assuages the guilt for "sins"—real or imagined. And often they enjoy the extra attention from family and friends.

So, in a very real sense these people have accidents on purpose but of course you'd have a tough time persuading them that this is the case.

supposed to be strictly for married couples. I am scared to death I'll be in the same boat.

I am 16 and my parents insist on dragging me everywhere with them. When I was a child I enjoyed it, but now I wish they'd leave me alone.

The other evening I was all set to go to my girl friend's house. She had baked a cake and five of us gals were going to have a hen party. My mother told me after supper that she and dad were going to my aunt's and I had to go, too.

This aunt is a pill. She has no children and I have no one to talk to there. I'm always bored stiff.

Do you feel a girl should be dragged everywhere with parents—against her will? — BABY BETSY.

Dear Betsy: I do not. Teenagers should be encouraged to develop their own interests and have their own friends.

If your parents ask you to attend certain family functions, I feel you should go. But they should not insist that you pass up an evening with your friends to accompany them to your aunt's home where you'll have nothing to do but twiddle your thumbs.

Army Ex-Wife

Dear Ann: A problem has been causing me severe mental strain. I hope you can help.

My daughter married last year. The marriage lasted five months. The fellow was in the service.

At the time of the divorce the judge told my daughter she no longer would be entitled to the Army allotment check which wives get. She said she was aware of this.

For some unknown reason the checks were never stopped. I've warned her that she may get into serious trouble with the law if she continues to cash these checks. I've even considered writing to the U.S. Army and advising them of the divorce and signing her name to the letter.

Please tell me if my daughter is doing something illegal. Perhaps your answer will scare some sense into her head.—MRS. R.

Dear Mrs. R.: If your daughter won't listen to you maybe she'll listen to the chief of Advisory Services of the 3d Army Headquarters. He says your daughter is guilty of fraud and she is liable for the full amount.

Her best bet is to write to the office which has been issuing these checks. She should tell them exactly what she has been doing and for how long. If she turns herself in they may give her a break and permit her to make the repayments on an installment basis.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

DiSalle Claims GOP Foe Should Go Before Jury

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says he thinks his Republican gubernatorial opponent, James A. Rhodes, should testify before a special grand jury. But the counsel for the group says it will be up to the jury if Rhodes is called.

A decision, however, probably will not come until next week. The grand jury, investigating alleged influence peddling in the State Liquor Department, has recessed until Monday.

DiSalle's suggestion came Thursday in a letter to Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy. He urged Rhodes and two of his aides, William Morris and Roy Martin, deputy auditors, be called on the basis of information from a n o n y m o u s source.

The governor said the information by letter and telephone indicated that Morris and Martin have met with the star missing witness in the case, Chicago distillery president Joseph Makler, in Chicago and that Makler was present for meetings in Rhodes' hotel room in Cleveland.

Dates of the alleged meetings were not disclosed.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Gals: For those of us who must have our old cabbage slaw—and I am one of 'em—let me give you a top secret that will make it really different. About once a month I take a day off . . .

I usually go to some out-of-the-way drugstore to eat. I walked into one this week and had the "blue plate luncheon."

It cost 85 cents. Not only did I lick the platter clean, but walked out with an $85,000 hint! Cabbage slaw. . .

This was the best cabbage slaw that I ever tasted.

Color probably had lots to do with it. Here's how it was made: The head of cabbage was cut in two with a stainless steel butcher knife. Then the half-heads were soaked in salty ice water for about one hour. Gals, I found out that this makes it so crisp that it actually crunches between your teeth.

After removing the cabbage, shake the excess water from it. Cut the half-cabbage in half again. Now we are left with one-fourth of a head of cabbage.

Place this on your cutting board, and take your sharpest knife—(ladies, if it ain't sharp, for goodness sake take care of that little matter right now)—and placing one of the cut sides of the head of the cabbage down on your cutting board, shred it as thinly as possible so that the cabbage will end up in teeny shreds. As the cabbage will have become so cold from the soaking, it will be easier to slice.

Now, cabbage slaw is cabbage slaw. However, here's what made this cabbage slaw different: Next time you hard boil some eggs, drop them in pickled beet juice and leave them for a few days. The white of the egg will turn a beautiful pinkish purple color. Oh, yes, I forgot to say that the eggs should be shelled before dropping them in the pickled beet juice. After all, we don't want egg shells in our cabbage slaw, do we?

Take the boiled egg white—which now won't be white but a gorgeous purple color—and grate it on the biggest part of your grater. Throw this dyed egg white into your cabbage slaw! Then put your dressing on.

And I also got the secret of this delicious dressing.

Tartness is one of the things which we do not often find in dressings. You may use any recipe you wish in cabbage slaw. However, here is the one that came from the cook at the drugstore:

Two ounces of oil—this is any kind of cooking oil.

One ounce of lime juice—lemons are often substituted when these are not in season.

One-half teaspoon of prepared mustard.

A dash of paprika.

One-fourth teaspoon of celery salt.

One ounce of mayonnaise.

Salt and fresh ground pepper to taste.

Mix this all together pour over the slaw and put back into the refrigerator. When you can't stand it another minute, eat it and drool!

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: We are manufacturers of corduroy and we read with interest the comment on how corduroy should be washed.

A dryer does make corduroy soft and velvety—the way it looks when it is new. Corduroy, like any cotton, if hung up and dried indoors does have a tendency to be stiff.

For those who do not have a dryer, we recommend drying corduroy in the sun. This will soften the fabric. If indoor drying cannot be avoided, light ironing on the reverse side, preferably with a steam iron, will soften the cloth and restore it to a soft and velvety finish.

Thief Takes Old Coins From West End Home

Mrs. Eleanor Cooper, 1005 May St., told police Thursday night a collection of old coins was stolen from her home sometime between Oct. 1 and yesterday.

The West End woman said the loss included a series of buffalo nickels issued between 1913 and 1938; a Jefferson nickel collection dating back to 1938; Roosevelt dimes beginning with the 1946 series; Mercury head dimes issued between 1916 and 1945, and Washington head quarters issued from 1946 to 1959 and 1932-45.

Mrs. Cooper reported the theft at 7 last night to Patrolman Paul Burson, desk officer. The value of the coins was not estimated.

Hoyman Returned . . .

Ray Hoyman, the man who will lead the seventh ranked Steubenville Big Red eleven on to Harding field tonight against the East Liverpool Potters, once stepped out of coaching but is now on the way to an unbeaten year.

Hoyman, who has a successful touch when it comes to football, tutored some of Steubenville's greatest squads. Joining the Big Red staff in 1946 he became head football coach in 1949 serving in this post until 1954.

He gave up coaching for three years but in 1958 came back as an assistant then took over the head coaching job for the second time in 1960.

His best squad was the 1951 team which was led by the late Calvin Jones, who went on to become an All-American at the University of Iowa. Jones later met death in a plane crash in Canada.

With Jones were Jim Gilliam who also played at Iowa along with the Jeter brothers. This quartet made it rough on all opponents and in two seasons, 1950 and 1951, Big Red teams only lost three games while winning 17.

Cincy Loaded With Talent . . .

WITH baseball out of the way finally and football heading towards its halfway point, we don't think it is too early to talk about basketball. And while we are on the subject we might as well talk about the best — the University of Cincinnati.

East Liverpool's Kenny Cunningham is one of four sophomores vying for a position at UC but it seems the top five spots are pretty well sewed up.

The Bearcats have eight lettermen, four of them starters, returning from the 1962 NCAA championship squad.

Practice got underway Monday at Cincinnati and heading the list of the returnees were senior guards Tony Yates and Tom Thacker along with Ron Bonham and 6-foot-8 George Wilson. This quartet plus Paul Hogue, who graduated, made up the starting five which swept Ohio State off its feet for the NCAA title last March at Louisville.

The fifth spot on the starting unit will probably be taken by sophomore Ron Krick, who stands 6-foot-8, and was a teammate of Cunningham's on the freshman squad last season before being injured or it could be filled by senior Dale Heidtting, also standing 6-foot-8.

Shriners To Sponsor Classic . . .

THE OHIO-West Virginia All-Star game will get back to where it was several years ago before the NCAA stepped in to ruin the annual summer classic.

Stopped by the NCAA of drafting the top talent out of the valley, a new all-star game that will be known as the Shrine Ohio-West Virginia game will be played at Wheeling sometime in August.

The game will be sponsored by Osiris Temple of the Mystic Shrine and all proceeds will be donated to the Shriners' Crippled Children Hospitals of which there are 17 in the country.

The sponsors indicate that the new game will abide by NCAA rules and regulations and thus be eligible for an NCAA sanction, which will be applied for as soon as all details of the game are worked out.

In the past two years, football players with scholarships to colleges holding membership in the NCAA have not appeared in the valley all-star contest that has been sponsored annually by Boosters organizations of Eastern Ohio and West Virginia because of the NCAA's ruling passed in 1961 that athletes appearing in unsanctioned games would lose a year of college eligibility.

3 Days To Complete Game . . .

A HIGH School baseball team, coached by a former Georgetown athlete Bill Trimble, was involved in a game that took three days to complete.

It happened in Colorado where Trimble is in his fourth season as baseball coach at College High of Greeley, Colo.

College High met Valley High of Gilcrest in a seven-inning game and weather had nothing to do with the fact that the game took so long to play.

At the end of the contest, one score book showed Gilcrest ahead 11-10 but another had College High leading 10-9. By the time the arguments subsided it was dark.

The eventual decision was the Gilcrest was ahead 11-10 but Trimble's team was entitled to one more turn at bat. Three days later the teams met again and in 15 minutes the Gilcrest pitcher retired three College High batters to preserve the victory.

Trimble was a former football and baseball standout at Midland High. The Georgetown athlete was once signed by the former New York Giants as a catcher and played one season in the minors.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

HERE is evidence that football players riding the bench get over excited during a game. Last week in the Weirton-Triadelphia game, a Triadelphia player came off the bench to tackle Weirton's Ron Williams on his touchdown run.

The youth got worked up to such a pitch he forgot he wasn't part of the game but he soon was because his coach sent him on the next play.

LAST WEEK'S score—11 right, 3 wrong. Tonight's stab-in-the-dark picks—STEUBENVILLE will be trying to keep its record clean and improve on its rating. Big Red by five touchdowns over the Potters . . . SALEM is rebounding from a nasty defeat last week and Wellsville is crippled, the Quakers also by five touchdowns . . . MIDLAND by a touchdown over Hopewell in a successful homecoming for the Leopards . . . BEAVER LOCAL to bounce back with a touchdown victory over Carrollton . . . MINERVA to top East Palestine by two TD's . . . CHESTER'S 12-point favorite over Crestview in another homecoming . . . COLUMBIANA a big winner over Sebring by four touchdowns . . . LOUISVILLE three touchdowns better than Lisbon . . . LEETONIA a six point favorite over Poland.

SATURDAY'S tussels—CANFIELD to nip United . . . STANTON LOCAL by three TD's over Newell . . . CONOTTON VALLEY a 14-point pick over Salineville.

Beaver Elementary

Elevens Gain Split

Beaver Local Elementary split in a doubleheader with Lisbon Thursday with the seventh grade winning 14-0 while the eighth grade gridders lost 20-14.

Dennis Klembara and Paul Brown scored to pace the Beaver Local seventh grade team. Fred McLaughlin scored both TD's in the loss to Lisbon.

The Potter coach was referring to All-Ohio Harry Wilson and his touchdown partner Ray Terry. Both boys are swift and the Pot-

Hedmond indicated that Tom Kraft and Earl Olmstead would be alternating at the left halfback spot with Bob Mercer at right half. Chuck Baker, the team's leading scorer, will be at quarterback again.

IT SEEMS the only things you have to worry about when playing Steubenville are Wilson and Terry, but so far nobody has been able to do much about it. Between them, the two halfbacks have scored 23 touchdowns.

Westgaters Beaten, 20-8

Westgate was handed a 20-8 setback by Steubenville Central Thursday afternoon at Patterson Field giving the Wildcats a 2-2 mark on the season.

After a scoreless first quarter, Central tallied single touchdowns in the next three periods while holding Westgate to a fourth period tally.

Babach scored all three touchdowns for the visitors on long jaunts.

Quarterback Chuck Winters scored Westgate's lone TD on a seven yard jaunt and Clarence Crable added the conversion. Coach Larry Folz praised the work of Crable and Winters.

The young Quakers scored first on a 10-yard pass play in the second quarter and converted for an 8-0 lead. The visitors built the margin to 14-0 with an eight-yard running play.

East Junior bounced back to tally its lone touchdown in the third frame on a 16 yard run by Danny Roach. Salem added an insurance tally in the fourth period.

Bill Rigney Named Top AL Skipper

INDIAN WELLS, Calif. (AP)—There was a tinkling of cocktail glasses and happy talk in the background as Bill Rigney was called to the telephone in the lounge of the Indian Wells Country Club.

The call advised Rigney that he had been named the 1962 Manager of the Year in the American League in the annual poll by The Associated Press.

The vote was overwhelming for the pilot of the Los Angeles Angels, whose third place finish this year might be termed the critics' No. 1 consternation of the year. They had overwhelmingly picked Rigney's Angels to finish well in the second division in this, only their second year in major league baseball.

Of the 108 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers Association, 80 went to the Angel skipper.

Sam Mele of the second place Minnesota Twins was second, with 25, and Ralph Houk of the World Champion Yankees was third with three.

The reaction of Rigney, who is playing here in the annual major league ballplayers' golf tournament, matched the merriment in the background of the lounge.

"Naturally," Rigney led off, "I am very honored. I can only say at first that there are other managers in the league. Sam Mele, Houk—who deserve this honor as much as I do.

or managers did remarkable jobs, so I am particularly happy and pleased. I feel wonderful."

Throughout the season Los Angeles baseball fans and writers used such adjectives as "amazing" and "astounding" for the Angels, and "remarkable" was the favorite for the 43-year-old Rigney.

For the remarkable actually led the league on the traditional July 4 and were still tough and in contention by Labor Day.

In the final two weeks Los Angeles trailed off and wound up 10 games behind New York and five behind Minnesota.

Bucks Face Northwestern; Ohio U., Miami In Big One

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Saturday is homecoming day as Ohio State and Northwestern battle before 84,000 in the Big Ten's No. 1 clash of the day.

And a flock of Ara Parseghian's unbeaten Wildcats can get in on the ceremonies, for 24 of his 72 players are products of the Buckeye realm. Eight are lettermen, and another — quarterback Tom Myers of Troy—is his biggest threat.

Myers, an 18-year-old sophomore who threw 71 touchdown passes as a high school star, has completed 43 of 60 this year for 634 yards and 7 scores.

The Wildcats have hit the airways for 744 yards, best in the country, and their 116 points in three conquests ties them for second in the land with Wisconsin.

Ohio State paces the pack in rushing with 1,060 yards, so this climactic clash pits the nation's best ground-eating corps against the best of the aerial gunners.

Ohio State is sixth and Northwestern seventh in the national ratings, and the Bucks are seven-point favorites to grab the verdict and continue on toward the Big Ten title.

The Buckeye-Wildcat clash is not the only big one on the 24-game program for Ohio colleges Saturday.

Down Athens way, the Mid-American Conference loses one of its "clean" members as Miami's Redskins go against Ohio University's Bobcats. Miami has a five-game winning streak while Ohio University has won four. They are tied at 2-0 in the Mid-American.

The odds-makers have the Bobcats a half-point favorite in this one, probably figuring on a Miami letdown after its 10-7 upset of Purdue last week.

Another red-hot tussle sends Capital (3-0) against defending champion Wittenberg (4-0) in an Ohio Conference contest at Springfield. This pair and Akron (4-0) are the only unbeaten teams in the circuit, and the Zippers entertain Wooster (1-2-1).

Bowling Green (4-0) leads the Mid-American with 3-0 and is host to Kent State (2-3).

Western Reserve and John Carroll, both of the Presidents' Conference, round out the unbeaten contingent with 2-0. Reserve goes against Wayne and Carroll is at home against Allegheny.

Also on the slate are Mount Union at Denison, Muskingum at Heidelberg, Kenyon at Baldwin-Wallace, Oberlin at Ohio Wesleyan and Hiram at Otterbein (N) in the Ohio Conference.

Case Tech entertains Bethany in the Presidents' loop, Wilmington goes to Ashland in the Mid-Ohio, and these non-league frays round out the slate: Dayton at Xavier, Albright at Youngstown, Waynesburg at Marietta, Cincinnati at North Texas, Defiance at Northwood, Rochester at Findlay, Tennessee State at Central State and Ohio Northern at Bluffton (N).

Ranked Teams Clash, Reshuffle Is Expected

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
There's only one thing certain about this weekend's major college football games: There'll be some changes made.

Four of the nationally ranked teams test each other in a couple of Saturday games that could have a vital bearing on the No. 1 spot in the nation, the Southwest Conference title and the Big Ten championship.

Those match seventh-ranked Arkansas against top-dog Texas at Austin and sixth-ranked Ohio State against No. 8 Northwestern on the Buckeyes' home field.

Since it figures that someone is going to lose in those two, the national rankings are due for a shakeup for the fifth week in a row.

Mighty Alabama, edged out of the No. 1 spot this week, is counting on just that—a shakeup—in its hopes to regain the top spot. But to do so, Bear Bryant's defense-minded Crimson Tide has to get past Tennessee, which is much tougher than its 0-3 record would indicate.

That one is due for regional television coverage, as is Oregon (3-1) at Air Force (3-1) and Rice (0-2-1) at Southern Methodist (0-3).

The weekend program opens tonight with Maryland (4-0) at Miami, Fla. (3-1). It features a clash of two of the nation's top quarterbacks, George Mira of Miami and Maryland's Dick Shiner.

Other games Saturday involving nationally ranked teams include California at third-ranked Southern California, No. 4 Louisiana State at Kentucky, No. 5 Mississippi vs. Tulane at Jackson, Miss., No. 9 Washington at Stanford and Iowa at No. 10 Wisconsin.

The Texas-Arkansas affair figures to be the big one. Should Arkansas pull off the upset (Texas is favored by 5½ points), the Razorbacks would appear to be in good shape to claim a fourth straight title. They were co-champions last season.

The Ohio State-Northwestern clash at Columbus shapes up as scoring circus. Ohio State (2-1) owns the nation's best ground attack and Northwestern (3-0) claims the best passing attack.

The Buckeyes rank as a one-touchdown favorite.

Alabama (4-0) the defending national champion, will need a decisive victory over Tennessee to regain the top spot, and Tennessee has long been an Alabama jinx when playing on the Vols home field.

Southern California (3-0) doesn't expect major trouble from California (1-3).

Louisiana State (3-0-1) is a 14-point choice over Kentucky (1-2-1), and Mississippi (3-0) is a similar pick over winless Tulane (0-4).

Washington (3-0-1) is favored over Stanford (2-2). Wisconsin (3-0) is a narrow favorite over Iowa (2-1).

49ers Pick Over Packers; Steelers, Browns Favored

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Balance,

the bane of a forecaster's existence, has begun to show itself in both the National and American Football Leagues. It is now time for the femme fatale to enter — namely, Lady Luck.

Injuries may have a definite bearing this week on success or failure of the Green Bay Packers and New York Giants while the return of injured players may spell the difference for the Baltimore Colts and Los Angeles Rams.

This week's selections (last week 5 correct; 5 wrong; 1 tie; season 30-31-2; season 30-31-2:

NFL

San Francisco over Green Bay — Packers are expected to be without halfback, place kicker and top scorer Paul Hornung because of an injured knee. After 13 consecutive victories, including a toughie and a breeze in last two games, Packers could fall to momentum 49ers have gained from running of J. D. Smith and Bill

Kilmer and passing of John Brodie.

Detroit over New York — Not by much but absence of end Del Shofner and questionable status of halfback Paul Dudley, plus Lions' big defense will be the difference. Philadelphia over Washington — King Hill takes over quarterbacking for Eagles, whose ground offense showed signs of reawakening despite drubbing by Dallas last week. Norm Snead may be running out of miracles and Philadelphia's fierce desire to win to keep glimmer of title hopes should make the difference.

Pittsburgh over Dallas — This may be the Steelers year and running of John Henry Johnson and Joe Womack, Bobby Layne's quarterbacking, plus that huge defense too much for Cowboys.

Baltimore over Chicago — Lenny Moore is back at flanker for the Colts and quarterback Johnny Unitas is back in the groove with his passing. These two, plus improvement of Tom Matte and R.C. Owens, too much for Bears.

Cleveland over St. Louis — Jimmy Brown will play with a sore wrist but even the Browns have more all-around talent than do Cardinals, who again go with soph quarterback Charley Johnson.

Los Angeles over Minnesota — Rams at home and Jon Arnett back for full service means end to five-game losing streak. Vikings also 0-5, improving but will have to wait for another day.

AFL

Boston over San Diego — This American Football League game tonight will keep Patriots in thick of Eastern division fight while Chargers' youth policy may backfire.

Buffalo over Oakland, Saturday night — New Oakland Coach Red Conkright finds out what Marty Feldman knew all along. Raiders still aren't able to compete with more established clubs. Bills big win over Chargers last week finally got them untracked.

Denver over Houston — The Broncos' Frank Tripucka has supplied all the offensive answers so far and the defense has been exceptional. Return of Billy Cannon to Oilers' backfield will make it tougher.

Dallas over New York — The Texans Len Dawson and Abner Haynes should romp over the Titans bedraggled defense.

Philadelphia — Dick Turner, 147, Philadelphia, outpointed Jerry Black, 146, Philadelphia, 10.

Lodge 'Plugs' For Rep. Mosher, Blasts Kennedy

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—John D. Lodge, former Republican governor of Connecticut, went on a speaking tour of Lorain, Erie and Huron counties in behalf of Rep. Charles A. Mosher, R-Ohio, and tossed criticism at President Kennedy.

Speaking here Thursday, Lodge said:

"The Republicans who voted for legislation sponsored by the President are finding out the hard way that this will not help them politically. Mr. Kennedy is campaigning just as hard against Republicans who voted for his program as he is against those who voted against it."

"Yet, he is campaigning to help those very Democrats who have opposed his program."

Lodge said that Mosher—who is being opposed for the 13th Ohio District seat by Democrat J. Grant Keys, former state highway safety director—has a "marked sense of responsibility and solid judgment, ingredients most sorely lacking in Washington today."

Bank Robber Nabbed As Plane, Dog Assist

HILLSDALE, Mich. (AP)—Interstate cooperation involving an Ohio Highway Patrol plane and a Michigan State Police dog combined to capture a 24-year-old man wanted for an Ohio bank robbery.

The man, James Carpenter, was taken into custody Thursday seven miles north of the Ohio boundary in the "Lost Nation" wilderness area. It is about 15 miles from the scene of Wednesday's $4,000-$5,000 robbery of the Farmers State Bank of Fayette in Fulton County, Ohio.

The plane flushed Carpenter out of the heavy underbrush near Pittsford, Mich. When he saw the dog, he threw down his weapon, thus ending a 24-hour search.

Carpenter's father, Kenneth, 51, has been taken to Lenawee County jail in Adrian, Mich., for investigation as an accessory.

Over 83 pounds of food was taken sometime early Thursday morning in a burglary at the No. 16 School northwest of Wellsville, according to Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan.

Deputy Howard Gray investigated the burglary, which was discovered by Allison Deen, janitor, when he came to work. Gray said the furnace room door was pried open and the office of Mrs. Freda Schubert, principal, was ransacked, but nothing was taken.

No money is kept in the office, he added.

Taken from the cafeteria were 32 pounds of butter, 15 pounds of ground beef, six pounds of fish sticks, 20 pounds of macaroni, 10 pounds of spaghetti and half a case of motor oil.

Junior Editors Quiz on PLANTS

QUESTION: How do the Japanese make dwarf trees?

ANSWER: The Japanese are a very patient people who like to do skillful things with small objects. They have long been famous for the art of "bonsai" which means growing tiny trees. The principle is to plant seedlings or cuttings in a small pot which will cramp the roots (1) and (2). The roots can be clipped as the seedling grows and the leaves pruned (3). Thus the little tree is starved and becomes a dwarf. The trick is to do this without killing the tree; this is something requiring knowledge and skill. If such tiny trees can be kept growing, the trunks will thicken as the years pass and the whole effect will be that of a perfect tree in miniature. Sometimes a number of sprouts are trained up from a single root and give a marvellous effect of a small forest. The Japanese love to make miniature gardens in this way, combining the trees with rocks, sand, moss and other minute objects. Trees which can be dwarfed include spruce, cedar, juniper, pine, pomegranate, bamboo, cherry, beech, birch, sweet gum, peach and almond.

FOR YOU TO DO: Make a Japanese miniature garden inside the lid of a box. It takes too long to dwarf a tree by "bonsai," but you can clip a bit of shrub to make it look like a tiny tree and wedge it between rocks. A bit of mirror glass makes a wonderful pool; cover the edges with sand. Look for a bit of green moss. The feather is for smoothing the sand.

Elise Muchnikoff of Woodbridge, N. J., wins $10 for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

It's Safe To Joke About Politicians Again

You may have noticed it's okay to tell political jokes on TV again, and even poke a little fun at the White House residents. This sort of thing suddenly went out of style on TV when the Republicans took over in 1952. Word came down from network veepees that politics no longer was funny.

Hal Humphrey

Comedy writers had to put new twists on old Liberace jokes and leave Ike alone. Bob Hope was the only comic during those eight years who could twist Ike and Mamie. That was because Bob has enjoyed a kind of court-jester status at the White House since the Roosevelt days (Franklin, not Teddy). Also, except for the present White House occupant, Hope has had more money than the Chief Executive so could afford to be independent.

IT TOOK a little time for TV to adjust to the fact that a Democrat was back in the White House. An Art Carney-NBC special was aired right after Kennedy's inauguration, and writer Herb Sargent had Carney and Lee Remick scheduled for a comedy skit in which they impersonated Jack and Jackie. NBC ordered it killed.

Since then, however, TV has declared open season on the Kennedys, the FCC's Newton Minow and even Caroline Kennedy. Jack Benny recently did a routine with a little girl posing as Caroline, and jokes about her are now a dime a dozen.

A comely doll by the name of Pat Conway, who bears an almost carbon copy resemblance to Jackie Kennedy, has appeared as Jackie on segments of "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington" and "McKeever and the Colonel." She also just finished filming an episode of "Ensign O'Toole" to be aired in December.

HY AVERBACK, producer of "O'Toole," says he doesn't think he would have tried this innocent comedy bit with a look-alike for Mamie Eisenhower a few years ago.

Last summer Jim Backus introduced comic Vaughn Meader on his "Talent Scouts" show. Vaughn does a funny takeoff on the President. So good is it that Ed Sullivan had him on last week at a four-figure salary.

Some TV viewers may have forgotten the ribs and jokes hung on Harry Truman when he was in the White House. Stories on TV about an ex-haberdashery salesman, whose hobbies were playing the piano and writing letters to music critics about his daughter, were on the air nearly every week.

AT ONE TIME Red Skelton was reprimanded by his sponsor for letting his barbs at Harry get too pointed. The sponsor feared he might be losing some Democratic customers.

Americans always have enjoyed a laugh on their political leaders, if it's triggered by jokes done in good taste. Franklin Roosevelt and Harry Truman enjoyed them, too, and gained in stature from them. It was too bad that Ike hardly ever got to show off his sense of humor, largely because of TV's embargo on jokes about him.

If the TV nabobs persist in this silly business of declaring moratoriums on political humor when the Republicans are in office, they may help bring on the very thing Republicans fear most — another 12 years of a Democratic administration.

THE VOTERS may already have wised up to the fact that they get gyped out of a lot of laughs when the Republicans take over. And, as the Most Rev. Barnard James Sheil of Chicago once said, "Our native sense of humor and ability to laugh at ourselves in these trying times would save us, if everything else failed."

The late Will Rogers made a living out of ribbing our politicians and political institutions, and all that our TV comedy writers ask is the same opportunity. They have it now, but it will be difficult for the next GOP presidential candidate to get their vote unless he can guarantee them the right to make jokes about him.

Cast Intensifies Rehearsals For Liberty Players Comedy

Rehearsals have been stepped up for the second production by the Liberty Players Arts Theater Nov. 1-3, it was announced today.

A rehearsal was held Wednesday and Thursday nights and more will be held as the play nears production time.

The theater group is comprised of residents from the Tri-State area who are interested in stock productions. About 30 are participating in the play, "The Curious Savage," a three-act comedy by John Patrick.

It concerns an elderly woman, who is the mother of the "Savage" family. She had done everything to please her husband, but now that he is deceased, she plans to please herself. She also has $10 million which members of her family are attempting to gain through devious means.

The cast of the family includes Miss Joyce McLaughlin, who plays the lead, Howard Guidoo, Robert Burch, and Mrs. Mary Lou Cunningham. The inmates at an institution are portrayed by Miss Carol Ross, Miss Kay Hendershot, Harry Rose, Miss Linden MacLean and Nick Radeka.

The staff includes Glenn Dixon and Miss Shirley Andrews while a little boy, one of the surprises of the play, is done by Chris McNicol.

It is a one-scene play which takes place in the livingroom of a home. Miss McLaughlin, a resident of Wellsville, served as a prompter in the first play, "You Can't Take It With You." Dress rehearsal is slated Oct. 31.

New lighting is being installed by the players with proceeds obtained from the first play. Tickets are on sale at Heimie's here and Culp Pharmacy in Wellsville. Reduced rates are offered for ticket blocks and any one interested may contact Mrs. Thomas McNicol at LE. 2-2687.
